President's Ponderings

Halloween has passed and my community is into the Christmas Season. Christmas lights are appearing on neighborhood houses and that (b...y) music is sounding off at the mall.

Not to be outdone the Richmond Carvers will be holding its Christmas pot-luck dinner on December 17th. Location at the Kinsmen's Pavilion in the Richmond Nature Park. RCS will provide desert, tea and coffee. Can attendees please bring either a starter or a main course. Linda will be co-ordinating. There is lots of free parking. Also, BYOB.

I had the opportunity to meet with one of our old members recently. He is not at all well but the attached are some of his carvings that he has scattered around the house. Brilliant stuff. I apologise but I cannot find his name right now.

Meetings on:
Every Wednesday till Christmas. Break

All Meeting dates on our web site.

Just a reminder that our AGM will be held on January 18th 2023 during our regular meeting. Kenn will be sending out invoices soon for 2023 membership renewals. A reminder to those new members who signed on after the summer in Sept and Oct of this year. Your membership covers 2023 so if you get an invoice just write your name on it and mark it paid. We will make sure to keep our records straight.

We have had a number of positive meetings with Britannia and should be able to update everyone at the AGM.

Keep your knives sharp.

Time out for a Laugh

She hurried to the pharmacy to get medication, got back to her car she had locked her keys inside. The woman found an old rusty coat hanger left on the ground. She looked at it and said: "I don't know how to use this." She bowed her head and asked God to send her some HELP. Within 5 minutes a beat-up old motorcycle pulled up, driven by a bearded man who was wearing an old biker skull rag. He got off of his cycle and asked if he could help.

She said:

"Yes, my daughter is sick. I've locked my keys in my car I must get home. Please, can you use this hanger to unlock my car?"

He said, "Sure." He walked over to the car, and in less than a minute...The car was open.

She hugged the man and through tears said: Thank You, God, for sending me such a very nice man."

The man heard her little prayer and replied: "Lady, I am NOT a nice man. I just got out of prison yesterday; I was in prison for car theft."

The woman hugged the man again, sobbing, "Oh, thank you, God! You even sent me a Professional!"

Just a update on the carving Tom Parkes he won best of show at the Reflection of Art show in Saskatoon.

Tom has also sent word that Cam Merkle is no longer with Razortip but has opened a new business selling the same products. Below is his new company.
